CKUA Goes To The Country

Ponoka's First Hobby Fair, under the sponsorship of the Ponoka Stagettes, was an unqualified success. CKUA's roving microphone covered the proceedings, and pictured here are two of the most interesting hobbies of the Fair. In the left illustration, Jim McRae is interviewing Mrs. I. Massing, spinning wool on the wheel, with Mrs. A. Loving doing the carding. At the top, Mrs. Fred Strause is spinning angora wool directly from the rabbit whose nose is poking into the CKUA mike.

LEGEND: CBC—CANADIAN BROADCASTING CORPORATION. TAL—TALENT. REC—RECORDED. ET—TRANSCRIBED.

The program schedule this time is for the holiday months of July and August. There are quite a number of changes we would like to call to your attention.

CONCERT CORNER . . . at 9:30 in the morning replaces Bulletin Board and Spottite Bands Monday through Friday. Concert Corner is being carried from 9:30-10:00 a.m. on these days because of the number of requests that have come by mail and telephone from our listeners. CKUA operates entirely in the public service and our listeners felt and told us that they would like more concert music in the morning. If it doesn't unduly upset the schedule we do our utmost to satisfy their requests.

BULLETIN BOARD . . . has moved to what we think will prove a more convenient time at 10:45-11:00 a.m. Monday through Friday. Doris Sydye will provide the musical portion on Mondays and Fred Jackson on Friday.

NOON NEWS . . . is now edited and compiled in CKUA's own newsroom, allowing five minutes for world news, five minutes for Canadian news and five minutes for news pertaining to the province and the Edmonton region.

SPORT HITTIES . . . is brought to listeners Monday through Friday at 12:15 noon and 11:00 p.m. and Saturdays at 6:45 p.m. The new voice on sports events is that of Art Ward who has joined the staff of CKUA as special events announcer. Art will also be heard on the baseball games broadcast Tuesdays and Saturdays (when it doesn't rain).

HOME AND COUNTRY . . . A public service by CKUA to the Women's Institute members of Alberta and broadcast by Mrs. A. H. Roberts, takes a summer vacation during July and August. Next September will find "Home and Country" between 10:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon on Saturday morning. The program is being moved by request of the Institute members.

RAINBOW RENDEZVOUS . . . is carried immediately following the Victor Record Album Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings at 11:45 p.m. in place of the program "Dancing Discs".

B.B.C. HOUR . . . will introduce during July and August the first in a series of thirteen half-hour mysteries entitled "Appointment with Fear" and a 30-minute musical called "The Melody Lingers On." These programs are recorded by the B.B.C. studios in London, England, and carried exclusively in this territory by CKUA.

FROM THE SCRAPBOOK

"We never expected to see the day when girls would get sunburned in the places they do now." —Will Rogers

Alberta Farm and Home Forum

Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, 8:15 to 8:30 p.m.

Until television becomes more general the best we can do to show you what our Farm and Home Forum speakers look like is to bring you the occasional photo.

The recording resulting from this visit appeared on the Farm and Home Forum programme on June 18th.
